NO FURTHER DETAILS OF TORREON'S CAPTURE

Expected Telegraphic Conference Between Villa and Carranza Not Held Last Night—Visitors at Juarez Not Permitted to Go Near Carranza's Residence—Belief That Carranza Will Abandon Tampico Without Any Show of Resistance

Juarez, Mexico, April 3.—After the hysterical outburst which greeted the news of the fall of Torreon last night, this city was unusually calm today. It was the calm and refreshing sleep after a fever, for anxiety over the issue of the campaign has been little less than a fever for the last week.

Villa Places Federal Losses at 12,000. Great interest centers in definite information as to the number of federal prisoners taken by the rebels. In his bulletin last night Villa said the federal losses were 12,000 dead, wounded and prisoners, and it was assumed he meant that most of these were prisoners.

The report indicated a rout of the federalists so complete as to be almost unbelievable, and details were eagerly awaited.

Protection for Carranza. Villa's early estimate of his losses is 12,000 killed and 1,000 wounded.

The steers here today were almost deserted and while automobilists coming from the American side were everywhere, the restriction which compelled all to make a detour around the home of General Carranza was removed.

The restriction was removed. The possibility of assault of some fanatic on the chief of the revolution.

Salvador Romero. Salons and resorts generally were resumed today, and there was no evidence of a design to check any disposition to celebrate the victory.

General Carranza and General Villa failed to hold an expected telegraphic conference tonight, and the public was left to read the brief newspaper descriptions which were permitted to come through last night.

Storm Prevents Celebration. It had been expected that the victory at Torreon would be celebrated informally, but the storm which had kept the people off the streets.

There was no news given out as to the pursuit of the rebels, but it was said that a report of Carranza's capture had been a real guard engagement of minor importance.

RECOGNITION OF CARRANZA

Movement of Foreigners to Appeal to the United States.

El Paso, Texas, April 3.—The effect of the rebel victory at Torreon was felt here in a stiffening of the market for constitutional money and in the beginning of a movement to organize foreigners owning property in Mexico to appeal to Washington to recognize the Carranza government.

The latter idea originated with former Governor Wood of New Mexico. General Carranza declined to comment on the movement, but there was much favorable comment in Juarez.

The movement is said to be significant of a local sentiment that the revolution is carried to a complete success, the counter revolutions which it has general been predicted would really be materialized.

Mr. Curry said he was convinced that foreign sentiment held to the belief that recognition of Carranza would be of the question, the time has come for foreigners to lend such aid to the Carranza revolution as will help to a speedy conclusion. Telegrams soundings senators and representatives in Washington on the proposed propaganda were sent tonight. The fall of Torreon puts the dollar market in a state of confusion, said J. S. Curtis of El Paso, Texas, who is considered the most expert specialist in Mexican constitutional money in the United States.

Another Clash. Rebel Pursuers Engage Rear Guard of Fleeing Federalists.

Juarez, Mexico, April 3.—The rebel pursuers today morning engaged the rear guard of the fugitive federalists at San Pedro, 26 miles east of Torreon, killing 100 and capturing 123, according to the report received from General Villa this afternoon.

Among the prizes of war taken in Torreon were four large guns, 1,000 shrapnel and thousands of rifles. The path of the escaping federalists is marked by abandoned arms and cartridge belts.

General Carranza talked freely to reporters. Asked what he thought of the capture of Torreon, he replied: "It is of the greatest importance because it sets us free to concentrate the major portion of our forces around the more central cities of the republic still held by Huerta, with the knowledge that he no longer has a northern army worthy the name."

"Of course, I cannot disclose our future plans," he said, "but I am confident that though he has not proven himself a good soldier, would surely take advantage of the information."

"As for recognition of our government by the United States I have nothing to say, because that does not depend on me."

Federal Denial of Torreon's Fall. Mexico City, April 3.—The government persisted today in its denial that Torreon had fallen into the hands of the rebels, characterizing the news that it had done so as a pure fabrication on the part of the rebels. Minister of War Huerta and Minister of Interior Francisco I. Madero, who were in the city, denied the news.

HAS NO IDEA OF RE-ENTERING THE ARENA

ISSUES A STATEMENT

Admits That He Was Present at Luncheon in New York, But Was Not at Any of the Subsequent Meetings.

New Haven, Conn., April 3.—Colonel Ullman, the former well-known prominent republican worker, who recently announced his retirement, tonight gave out a statement concerning his presence at a conference of progressive and republican workers, April 13, which was reported to have taken place in New York. George A. Romans of Danbury, Conn., was the only one of the group who was present.

It Gets Before the People

The business man who depends upon his show windows to do his advertising depends upon his business increase from those who happen to pass and have time to stop. He overlooks the important fact that this is but a very small portion of the buying public. It isn't solely those who will look in who must buy and the long-sighted merchant is not satisfied merely with the trade of those who pass the window and look in.

All that is needed is experience to demonstrate that the best windows which can be opened for the scrutiny of those who have the money to buy are the advertising columns of The Bulletin. There is no way in which your sphere of influence can be so widened. These columns are scrutinized with the same interest and attention as are the news columns and it is the people of the home who do the reading who also do the buying. Whether you have plenty of show window space, a good or a bad street location, there is no way in which you can give your business a better boost than by securing additional show window space in The Bulletin. It gets your business before all the people.

During the past week the following matter has appeared in The Bulletin's columns and is delivered at your door for two cents a week:
